

James C. "Jim"

Angell

MIDVALE - James C. Angell, 70, our beloved husband, dad, grandpa, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend, died peacefully in the hospital on February 16, 1988, after a long and courageous battle with Alzheimer's.

Born March 9, 1919 in Salt Lake City, Utah to Solomon J. and Grace Mae Davis Angell. Married Lucienne for February 24, 1941 in Salt Lake City. Jim worked in the Salt Lake Temple for the Union Pacific Railroad, joined the U.S. Army Reserve, called to active duty in 1942 to serve through all of World War II, and was honorably discharged in 1945 due to wounds received. Returned to the UPRR, then re-enlisted in 1947. Served in Korea and continued to serve in the U.S. Army until 1962. Received many honors, awards and recognitions. Worked for First Interstate Bank until his retirement in 1985. High Priest in the LDS Church and served diligently in any position to which he was called. Loved hunting, fishing, and being outdoors.

Survived by wife, son, J. Doug Angell and wife Jeanen, daughter, Pam J. Butterfield and husband, Ron Butterfield, son, Joseph, Tony, Andy, Brandon and Nick; grand-grandson, Nicholas; brother, Robert, West Valley City; sisters, Marie Johnson, Salt Lake City, Doris Smyers, Lathrop, California; Joanne Ottom, Richland, Washington; stepmother, Della Angell, Salt Lake City; many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services, Wednesday, December 23, at 1 p.m. at Midvale LDS Ward, 2015 S. 1500 South. Friends may call Tuesday, 7-8 p.m. at Goff Mortuary, 8090 So. State, and Wednesday at the church one hour prior to the services. Graveside service Thursday, 1 p.m. at Hill Family Cemetery, Enterprise, Utah.